Can you hear the drums Fer-[G] nando, [G] I remember long [G] ago another starry night like [Em] this, [Em] .In the firelight [Am] Fernando, [Am] You were humming to [Am] yourself and softly strumming your [D] guitar, I could hear the distant [D] drums, and sounds of bugle calls were [D] coming from [G] a-far. [G↓]

They were closer now Fer-[G] nando, [G] Every hour every [G] minute seemed to last eternal[Em]-ly, [Em]
I was so afraid [Am] Fernando [Am] We were young and full of [Am] life and none of us prepared to [D] die, and I'm not ashamed to [D] say the roar of guns and cannons [D] almost made me [G] cr-ry. [G↓]

There was something in the [D/D7] air that night,
The [D/D7] stars were bright, Fer-[G] nando, [G] They were shining there for [D/D7] you and me, For [D/D7] li-iberty, Fer-[G] nando, though we [G7] never thought we could [E7] lose [E7] There's no re-[A7] gret. [A7] If I had to do the [D/D7] same again, I [D/D7] would, my friend, Fer-[G] nando, [G] If I had to do the [D/D7] same again, I [D/D7] would, my friend, Fer-[G] nando. [G↓]

... Now we're old and grey Fer-[G] nando, [G] And since many years I [G] haven't seen a rifle in your [Em] hand,
[Em] Can you hear the drums Fer-[Am] nando,
[Am] Do you still recall the [Am] frightful night we crossed the Rio [D] Grande, I can see it in your [D] eyes how proud you were to fight for [D] freedom in this [G] la-and. [G↓]

There was something in the [D/D7] air that night,
