

A Little Bit of Soap v4

The Jamels, 1961

INTRO: [D] [A] [D] [D]

A little bit of [D] soap

Will wash [G] away your [A] lipstick on my [D] face

But a little bit of [D] soap

Will ne-ever [G] never [E7] never ever ever e[A]-rase

The pain in my [D] heart, and my [D7] eyes

As I [G] go through the lonely [G] years

A little bit of [D] soap

Will never [A7] wash away my-y [D] tears [D]

Mmm, a little bit of [D] soap

Will [G] wash away your [A] powder from my [D] chin

A little bit of [D] soap

Will [G] ne-ever [E7] never never ever be[A]-gin

To-take-away-the [D] hurt that I [D7] feel

As I [G] go through the lonely [G] years

A little bit of [D] soap

Will never [A7] wash away my-y [D] tears [D]

Mmm, a little bit of [D] soap

Will [G] take away your [A] perfume eventua[D]-lly

But a little bit of [D] soap

Will [G] ne-ever [E7] wash away the memo[A]-ry

Of your [D] name in the [D7] night

That I [G] call through the lonely [G] years

A little bit of [D] soap

Will never [A7] wash away my-y [D] tears

[D] I'll-never-lose-the-memory-of-your

[D] name in the [D7] night

That I [G] call through the lonely [G] years

A little bit of [D] soap

Will never [A7] wash away my-y [D] tears

[D] Mmm, a little bit of [D] soap

Will never [A7] wash away my-y [D↓↓↓↓] tears